Letter of Good Standing for Reciprocity Application into Michigan

For an individual from another state or jurisdiction to be considered for reciprocity into Michigan, under law (Michigan Public Act 291 of 1966 as amended), The Michigan Bureau of Fire Services must have reasonable assurances from the issuing agency (typically the state) that the individual and their credentials are in good standing with the issuing agency.

Instructions to Issuing Agency:

Please copy and paste the below template body to your agency's letterhead, complete it, sign it, and return it to the requesting individual. Thank you.

Dear Michigan Bureau of Fire Services:

The below individual has been issued, by this agency, the below checked credentials/certifications and is in good standing with this issuing agency.

The term "good standing" in this context shall mean all of the following:

- Certification issued by this agency has not been revoked
- This agency has no knowledge of certification revocation by another issuing agency
- This agency has no knowledge that the below individual has been convicted of a felony within the United States.
- Certification issued by this agency is not expired

Name of Individual: _____

DOB or last 4 of SSN: _____
